

The Institute for Health, Social,
and Community Research
at Shaw University
2nd Conference on Minority Health

“Charting the Way to Change: Advancements in Health Disparities Research”

SAVE THE DATE

Friday, September 26, 2008

9:00 am - 5:00 pm

registration & continental breakfast at 8am

For more information, visit our website

www.ihscr.org

Conference Sponsors

Shaw University
National Center for Minority Health and Health Disparities
Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality
Department of Defense
Congressionally Directed
Medical Research Programs

The Institute for Health, Social, and Community Research
Shaw University
118 East South Street
Raleigh, NC 27601

Location: Sheraton Raleigh Hotel (Downtown)
Address: 421 South Salisbury Street, Raleigh,
North Carolina 27601

Objectives:

- To increase knowledge and awareness of racial health disparities.
- To showcase minority health disparities research conducted at The Institute for Health, Social, and Community Research at Shaw University.
- To provide a forum to explore partnerships and collaborations between IHSCR, public health policy makers and practitioners for addressing health disparities.
- To introduce underrepresented students to the challenges and opportunities of careers in health disparities research.

Target Audience:

- Peer investigators
- Health educators
- Public health professionals (state, county, local)
- Community health advocates
- HBCU students (graduate and undergraduate)
- Minority students at non-HBCUs
- Other Research Centers

PLEASE
PLACE
STAMP
HERE